

About Us

- We opened the doors with only 5 students, operating on one day per week. We now serve over 115 students, 6 days per week.
- Students have ranged in age from 11 months to 82 years.
- The majority of Art House staff and faculty members live right here in Astoria.

“Art House Astoria is a wonderful community of people who were so supportive of me during my audition for Frank Sinatra School of the Arts and my time there. Thanks to Art House I’ve learned so much about music and have had so many memorable experiences.”

~Gabrielle Monge, Age 18,
AHA student since 2010

“Art House Astoria prepared me for Broadway auditions, and when I was offered NEWSIES, they were there to cheer me on along with my family!”

~Luca Padovan, Age 12,
AHA student since 2012

Mission Statement

Art House Astoria is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit organization in residence at Astoria First Presbyterian Church. As an active part of the Astoria neighborhood Fall 2009, our mission has been to bring art and music education at an affordable price to Astoria and the surrounding Queens area.

We employ quality NYC-based instructors who possess great energy and passion for their art. We offer a variety of group classes to lower the cost for individual students. Art House Astoria also offers a variety of discounts including multiple lesson discounts and family discounts.
